Announcements

A warm welcome is extended to any who are visiting with us today. Our prayer is that God may be pleased to prepare us for the week that lies before us and that His Name may be magnified in our worship. The congregation is pleased to welcome Prof. B. Gritters into our pulpit and fellowship today.

Classis West met in special session on May 6-7, 2009, to treat the request of Bethel PRC to dismiss Rev. Mahtani under Article 11 of the Church Order. Classis did not approve Bethel’s request, but directed Bethel’s consistory, with the help of a special committee of Classis, to labor pastorally with Rev. Mahtani, directing him to seek release from the ministry under Article 12 of the Church Order.

The Consistory is scheduled to meet this Thursday at 7:30 PM.

This Sunday’s message on the Reformed Witness Hour was “Women Walking Worthy.” Tune in to WYLL, 1160 AM, next Sunday at 8:00 AM to hear “Having Our Souls Anchored in Heaven,” based on Hebrews 6:20-21.

Calvin’s influence in the Reformation and on the Reformed church to the present day is astonishing. That influence extended to doctrine, worship, preaching, instruction of children, church offices and government, home visitation, walk of life, and much more. In this, the second scheduled speech of the Calvin Conference, Prof. Dykstra, Professor of Church History and New Testament Studies, will explore the life and work of John Calvin. How did God so mold this man that he could be the powerful reformer that he was? What are the main contributions that Calvin made to the great Protestant Reformation? And, what blessings does God give the church yet today as fruits of Calvin’s work and genius? Plan to attend! Calvin Conference, Sept. 3-5, 2009.
